hi -

A small miracle has happened! I got a mag to back me in Kaplan research. I say small, because that's exactly what the budget is - nevertheless I'll be up your way around the end of the month. I'll bring my files and maybe we'll rediscover America!

The Cortes trip lasted four days! Interesting to see how people react under stress. But a great irony in history occured to me. Cortes certainly doesn't have his proper place in Mexican history when the whole country is a vestige of his, albeit enroute you can hardly find any. Tell you about it. Was a great experience, although aborted.

Best ,

Pete
